CONSEQUENCES

- 7 points constitutes written warning.
- 12 points one-week suspension.
- 20 points sit down with Dina & Tommy (resolution)/ termination.

There is no requirement for a "verbal warning"; agreement to work at Dina's Pizza & Pub indicates you understand our procedures and the consequences for violating them. All violations listed above shall be assessed with disciplinary points. Any violation that can earn a range of points will be assessed and assigned a point value by two directors. Shift Leaders and Management has the prerogative to assess discretionary disciplinary points that are not defined above depending on circumstances that may arise. Additionally, Management may remove points based upon improved conduct, solely at their discretion. Points remain against a person for a rolling 90-day period, at which point they are reset back to 20 points. If at any time the Point System is abused, the employee may face immediate termination. In the event that the team member is deducted a point and unavailable for a face-to-face conversation, an email will be sent detailing the reason for deducted points.
